KNOXVILLE · OCTOBER 16, 2026

FOR OUR NONPROFIT PARTNERS

We build the night. The night funds you.

A one-night, 120-seat, black-tie evening that exists to do exactly one thing:
put what it raises into the hands of local nonprofits. Nobody makes a dime.

• Nobody profits from this night

• No cost to participate

• No application — just a conversation

THE STANDARD, KNOXVILLE

NO COST TO PARTICIPATE

HOW THE MODEL WORKS

Nobody profits. You receive it all.

Sponsorship gifts and auction paddles never pass through our hands — they are unrestricted gifts made directly to your organization, tax-deductible for the giver. Ticket revenue produces the evening, and every dollar beyond those costs goes directly to the beneficiary organizations. It costs your organization nothing to be part of this: no sponsorship fee, no table to buy, no tickets to sell.

WHAT BENEFICIARIES RECEIVE

- 1 The gift
Unrestricted funds — sponsorship and auction gifts made directly to your organization, plus all proceeds from the evening beyond its production costs. Nobody takes a cut; nobody makes a dime.
- 2 The moment
Your work, told properly, at the center of the evening — to a room that is actually listening. Not a slideshow. A moment built into the night itself.
- 3 The room
Knoxville's builders, givers, and connectors meeting your mission at its best. The relationships in that room outlast the check.

WHAT WE ASK OF YOU

- 1 A conversation
Time with us before the evening so we can understand the work well enough to tell it truthfully.
- 2 Your story
Help getting the details right — the people, the numbers, the thing your organization does that nobody else in this city does.
- 3 Your presence
A seat at the table on October 16. You're a guest, not staff — no selling tickets, no working the room, no logistics.

That's the whole list.

THE NIGHT ITSELF

Four movements, built around your work.

The Doorway opens. Cocktails, black tie, a room built for one night.

Dinner at one long table while your story is told properly — and local artists present works made to tell your story.

The live auction and fund-a-need. The room decides together; every paddle goes straight to the cause.

An original score performed once, then after hours.

Conversations with Knoxville organizations are underway now. Beneficiary partners are revealed as the evening approaches — and sponsors hear first. There is no application and nothing to fill out: if you know a nonprofit that should be part of a night like this — for this evening or the ones that come after it — reach out with a suggestion.

START THE CONVERSATION

Are you a Knoxville nonprofit?

We're looking for organizations doing work this city should hear about — told well, funded properly, in one unrepeatable evening.
